

Young ICCA Workshop in Cairo, Egypt on Monday 11 December 2017

International Arbitration: Procedural Tactics and Strategies

Timing	Event activity	Speakers and moderators
1.30 – 2.00	Welcome and registration
2.00 – 2.10	Introduction to the workshop, Young ICCA and the two panels	Antonia Birt, Young ICCA events coordinator
2.10 – 2.20	Introduction to CRCICA	Dr Ismail Selim, CRCICA's Director
2.20 – 2.45	Key note address on Procedural Tactics and Strategies	Michael E. Schneider, Founding Partner, LALIVE, Geneva
2.45 – 4.00	Panel 1: Tactical considerations for drafting written submissions moderated by Amr Arafa, State Counsel, Egyptian State Lawsuits Authority (Egypt)
	Written Submissions from the perspective of Claimants and Respondents: what are the differences?	Amr Omran, Associate, Freshfields, Dubai
	How to decide which factual witness statements should and should not be introduced	Salma El Baz, Senior Associate, Rizkana Partners, Cairo
	How does the identity of the tribunal affect the strategy for written submissions?	Mohamed Shelbaya. Partner, Shearman & Sterling, Paris
4.00 – 4.15	Break with refreshments
4.15 – 5.45	Panel 2: Procedural applications and other strategic decisions moderated by SOaad A. Hossam, PhD Candidate, MIDS (Geneva)
	Choosing the right arbitrator or chair	Dr Mohamed Abdel Raouf, Partner, Abdel Raouf Law Firm, Cairo
	Parallel proceedings, bifurcation and trifurcation	Prof Dr Mohamed Abdel Wahab, Founding Partner, Zulficar & Partners Law Firm, Cairo
	Guerrilla tactics	Amani Khalifa, Principal, Khalifa Associates, Cairo
5.45 onwards	Reception at CRCICA

