

The Belt and Road Initiative: Economic Legal Landscape and Dispute Settlement

12 December 2017

CRCICA Auditorium, Cairo - Egypt

Call for Papers

We encourage professionals and academia across the region - who have conducted research and have prepared literature of relevance to the scope of the Conference - to submit proposals for papers on a topic of their choice relating to the broad themes of the agenda

Approved papers will be added to the folder of the event with a possibility to have the most relevant of them delivered at the working sessions. It is noteworthy that CRCICA Auditorium has in-house Skype video conference which will facilitate live overseas participation.

We look forward to receiving expressions of interest no later than December the 7th, 2017 via conferences@crcica.org.

Our Objective is to provide a scholastic approach to aspects related to the Belt and Road Initiative with a focus on the intermingling relation between economic and legal considerations in an Afro-Asian Context.

Our Audience is a diversity of stakeholders with current or prospective involvement in the Belt and Road regional connectivity including business and legal professionals from both the private and public sectors, ministerial officials, academicians, politicians and diplomats....etc.
